

Newsette-

Bryanette

ALUMNI NEWS SHEET
SUMMER, 1974

FIRST STUDENT BODY AND FACULTY OF BRYAN UNIVERSITY, SEPTEMBER, 1930

Front row left to right: VIRGIL WILKEY, MRS. C. A. MONTOYA, MISS HARRIETT DUNLAP, MRS. BEULAH GENTRY, MRS. VIOLA WILSON, MISSES NINA BILLINGSLEY, RUTH LACEWELL, CATHERINE BEARD, AND PEARL REED. Second row: R. C. WILBUR, MISSES CATHERINE TAYLOR, EDWINA WING, REBA ARNOLD, ELIZABETH BYRON, NORA GIDEON, MARJORIE SMITH, AND DOROTHY CAUDEL. Third row: ROBERT CRAWFORD, MISSES

MONA FLERL, SYBIL LUSK, MRS. MADGE BROWN, MRS. LUTHER MORGAN, AND MRS. A. M. MORGAN. Fourth row: BEN PURSER, LOGAN RECTOR, GEORGE M. TROUT, MISS IRENE ODOM, MRS. ROBERTA HAGGARD, AND MRS. BELL MORGAN. Back row: MARION DENTON, NORMAN LOCKE, PROF. D. W. RYTHER, JR., DR. GEORGE E. GUILLE, DEAN F. W. SPINDLER, PROF. A. P. BJERREGAARD, PROF. C. A. MONTOYA, HOWARD MORGAN, AND JAMES LOCKE.

FIRST SENIOR CLASS GRADUATING IN 1934

FORTY-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF CLASS OF 1934

William Logan Rector
Evansville, Tennessee

Marjorie Alpheus Yancey
Baskerville, Virginia

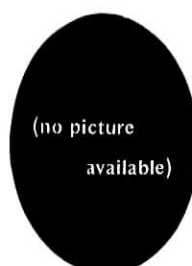

Franklin H. Bennett
Bedford, Indiana

Harriett Elizabeth Dunlap
Dayton, Tennessee

William Logan Rector
Dyersburg, Tennessee

Marjorie Yancey Weaver
Portsmouth, Virginia

Franklin H. Bennett
Roncerverte, W. Virginia

Harriett Dunlap Treher
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Mona S. Flerl
Bakewell, Tennessee

Sybil Lusk
Miracle, Kentucky

Bertha Ansley Morgan
Dayton, Tennessee

R. Tibbs Maxey, Jr.
Circleville, Ohio

Mona S. Flerl
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Sybil Lusk
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Bertha Ansley Morgan

R. Tibbs Maxey, Jr.
Louisville, Kentucky

NEWSETTE-BRYANETTE

Rebecca Peck, Editor

Editorial Staff

Robert Andrews '67

Karin deRosset '64

Maxie Green x'58

Virginia Seguire '54

Published quarterly by the
Bryan College Alumni Association
Dayton, Tennessee 37321

Second class postage paid at Dayton, Tennessee

DR & MRS LLOYD E FISH A
RT 8 LAMP POST ESTATES 9 7 72
WARSAW IN 46580

REBA ARNOLD married Clyde FITZGERALD and began teaching after their fourth child entered school. Reba completed the B.S. degree at Bryan in 1960 and taught first grade for eighteen years at Frazier School in Rhea County. The children are Clyde, Jr., Baptist pastor; Arnold, attorney; Jim, salesman; and Rebecca, home economics teacher.

MARY CATHERINE BEARD attended Bryan two years and married Alvin Mims in 1934. They lived in Georgia for about ten years, then went to Flint, Mich., where Alvin worked twenty years for American Bakery Co. Their nine children are all married except two youngest boys, and now there are seventeen grandchildren (eight girls, nine boys). Mary Catherine retained her home in Flint after her husband's death in 1971. She sews and grows flowers of several varieties.

FRANKLIN BENNETT, who took his final year of college at Bryan after three years at Johnson Bible College in Tenn., has been minister in the Christian Church in Miami, Fla., Virginia and Roncerverte, W. Va., where he retired in 1961 after a heart attack. He served as trustee of the College of Scriptures of Louisville, Ky., a school for colored ministers. He was active in several civic clubs and served with the Red Cross during World War II. He and his wife, Marjorie, have two children, Sandra Menders, a medical records technician, and Timothy, U. S. Army.

MILDRED COOLEY married Kelly EVANS and continues to live in Spring City, Tenn. She has taught for 36 years in Rhea County education department, taking time out during the early childhood of two children, Marsha, now a housewife, and Ted, an air force captain. She is a former president of B & PW club, a member of Spring City Women's Club, and Retired Teachers Association.

MONA FLERL followed her bachelor's work at Bryan in the first graduating class with secretarial training at Edmonson School of Business in Chattanooga. She worked two years for Cabin Crafts, Inc., in Dalton, Ga., and thirty-three years for Electric Power Board of Chattanooga in the purchasing division. She is a member of the Chattanooga B & PW Club and Highland Park Baptist Church. This spring she had a cataract removed from one eye. Remembering her years at Bryan she says: "I shall always be grateful for the wonderful Christian faculty and students I had the privilege of knowing at Bryan."

SYBIL LUSK, also a graduate with the class of 1934, took the secretarial course at Edmonson School of Business in Chattanooga. Her employment included one year at Bryan teaching Spanish, three years at John Brown University teaching and doing secretarial work; five years with the U.S. government in Rantoul, Ill., and twenty-two years with TVA in Chattanooga. She has been a member of the First Alliance Church of Chattanooga, and a Bible teacher and president of the women's missionary Prayer Fellowship. Her recollections at Bryan include: "Our first president and Bible teacher, Dr. Guille, other Bible teachers and dedicated faculty members, the Christian fellowship; the first Bryan Quartet (of which I was a member); and most of all, the thrill of hearing the 'wonders of the wonderful Word,' of which I knew so little before coming to Bryan."

TIBBS MAXEY was a student at Johnson Bible College before attending Bryan five quarters and then completing the A.B. and B.D. degrees at Cincinnati Bible Seminary. His service record includes three years teaching in Minnesota Bible College, three years as Church of Christ preacher in South Dakota and four years in Ohio, and then thirty years as president of the College of Scriptures in Louisville, Ky. He has been active in Kiwanis Club, chairman of South African Mission 1946-1958, and president of the National Christian Missionary Convention in 1960 for the Christian Church. His recent trip with his wife, Norma, to the Orient was reported in the last issue of Bryanette. Says Mr. Maxey of Bryan, "I recall the days at Bryan with fondness and amusement. Being defeated for student body president by Lloyd Fish, playing on the varsity basketball team (that never won a game), being a model student (ha!); teaching Greek for six weeks as a student substitute; Dr. Quigley's 'Education' classes; Dean Ryther's social life and coaching; being in 'Dramatics' on and off campus plays; and being 'best man' to

FORTY YEAR REVIEW OF CLASS OF 1934

Zelpha Russell." The Maxeys have five children: Judith Clark, housewife; Marilyn Lewis, missionary; Linda Chambers, minister's wife; Dale Angela Owen, teacher; and Warren, television expert.

MARGIE SMITH MORRISON took one year at Bryan, two years at Tennessee Wesleyan, and during thirty-four years of teaching in Spring City completed the bachelor's degree at Bryan in 1961. She and her husband, Amazon, have two sons, Leonard and Harold, farmers.

BEN PURSER is a life-time resident of Dayton, who had one year of college training at Bryan. He began his present career in the Dayton Bank and Trust Co. in 1937 and became president in 1970. He has been active in the Chamber of Commerce and has served as secretary-treasurer of the Rotary Club, of which he is currently president. He has also been faithful as a member of the First United Methodist Church, where he is steward, trustee, member of the pastor-parish committee, and director of congregational music in Sunday school and church. He and his wife, Mary Agnes (Hogue) x'35 have two children, Mary Anne Parrott and Benjamin S., Jr.

WILLIAM LOGAN RECTOR married Helen Kyle soon after his graduation at Bryan. He served in the Navy three years during World War II and the family lived in Pikeville until 1949 when they moved to Dyersburg. Mr. Rector has been owner and manager of an oil distributing agency in Dyersburg for twenty-five years. He has been active in civic responsibilities as chairman of the Dyer County Industrial Commission in 1940; president of greater Dyersburg-Dyer County Chamber of Commerce in 1966; vice president of Dyersburg Housing in 1967; and member of several other community and educational committees. He was selected as Alumnus of the Year in 1964 at Bryan and is listed in the Outstanding Civic Leaders of America, 1967. The Rectors have been active in the First Baptist Church where Mr. Rector is deacon and Sunday

DR. JENSEN ON NATIONAL T.V.

The Day of Discovery program featuring personal Bible study with Dr. Irving L. Jensen, head of Bryan's Bible department, will be appearing throughout the U.S. and Canada from June 16 to August 18, the particular Sunday depending on the locality. The Radio Bible Class tape of the same program will be aired in all places on June 30.

In Memoriam

ERNEST TOLIVER x'36 died on March 26 after a brief illness in Mobile, Ala., where he had lived for 37 years. He was owner of the Coastal Electric Co. and has been a generous contributor to Bryan College. His survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Toliver; two daughters, and five grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Katie Toliver Morgan; two brothers, John W. (Bill) Toliver of Dayton and Ralph Toliver '37 of Manila Philippines; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Wright (Ruth) '40, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. John Sutton (Shirley), Mobile.

Sarah Elizabeth, the four-year-old daughter of Edward and MAUREEN (HAY) '58 READ went to "be with Jesus" on February 23 after an evening attack and a few hours of fever and severe discomfort. The autopsy showed a massive viral infection that went straight to her brain. A memorial fund has been established for gifts to the Lebanon Evangelical Mission in Beirut.

FLO (MELICK) x'46 COLLITT received her "home call" on April 25 after a brief illness with cancer. Her educational accomplishments included a B.A. from Grace College, an M.R.E. and an M.Div. from Grace Theological Seminary, as well as an M.A. from Western Maryland University. She taught second grade in the public schools in Hagerstown, where her husband, Robert x'50, is pastor of the Grace Brethren Church. The Collitts have two daughters and four grandchildren. In his tribute to his wife, Bob wrote, "... She was the one who gave her preacher husband the answer to deeper theological questions which she loved to explore; who was always eager to learn some new facet of the Truth and who passed it on so ably to others; one who could do anything—from fixing a leaking faucet to witnessing to both great and small anywhere in the world; who wrote songs and dramas accepted and published by leading Christian publishing houses... Ask anyone who knew her what they most noticed in her life. They will say, 'Her smile, her dedication to Christ and her ability to communicate her faith.'"

School teacher. They have five children: Zane Kyle, military; Anna Brown, housewife; William, business; Hal La Voy, teaching; and Pamela Sue, college student.

HARRIETT DUNLAP TREHER has been working since her graduation from Bryan along with maintaining home duties after her marriage to Merle Treher and caring for one child, Karen Dunlap. Her employment included one year with TVA, over a year as secretary in the Department of Justice in Dayton, Tenn.; supervisory service in the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C.; office of U.S. Attorney, Federal Court, Chattanooga; then to Regional Real Estate Manager, Post Office Dept. Chattanooga, from 1954 until 1957 when she took the position of examiner in Postal Inspection Service in Chattanooga until retirement in 1971. Three days a week she works in the Women's Department of the Chattanooga Free Press. Her church affiliation is at the Red Bank Methodist Church and includes work with the chancel choir, library committee, education commission, official board, and United Methodist Women, along with involvement with youth groups on Sunday evenings and in summer camps.

GEORGE TROUT attended Bryan three years and later added courses from Burton College and Seminary, National Bible College, Southern Seminary, University of Kentucky, Dallas Bible College, Moody Bible Institute, Bernadean University, and Stetson University to receive the A.B., ThB., N.D., and D.D. degrees. He served as pastor of several Baptist churches, the longest period with Grace Baptist Church in Lexington, Ky., which had a membership of 2,600 when he retired. During this pastorate his people sent him and his wife, Sallie, on a trip to the Holy Land and two trips to Europe, plus deeding them the parsonage at retirement. The Trouts celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on December 23, 1973. They have two daughters who are both ministers' wives: Helen Estes, wife of Dr. Estes, pastor of First Baptist Church of Deland, Fla., and Joyce Cole, wife of the pastor of one of two Baptist churches which grew out of Grace Baptist in Lexington. Dr. Trout's outstanding recollection of Bryan was when he was elected president of the Student Body. He writes: "I shall never forget Bryan and the students and teachers. Bryan was one of the highlights of my life—truly the happiest years of my life."

MARJORIE YANCEY WEAVER, after receiving her B.A. at Bryan, pursued a B.S. degree at Mary Washington University in Fredericksburg, Va., and also library science at William and Mary. She is married to Wendell Weaver; they have two children, Wendell Lee, army captain, and George Alpheus, federal policeman. Marjorie has been teacher and librarian in several Virginia schools, serving continuously as librarian at Portsmouth City schools from 1943-1971. She works at the local museum and is active in several civic organizations and in Cradock Baptist Church.

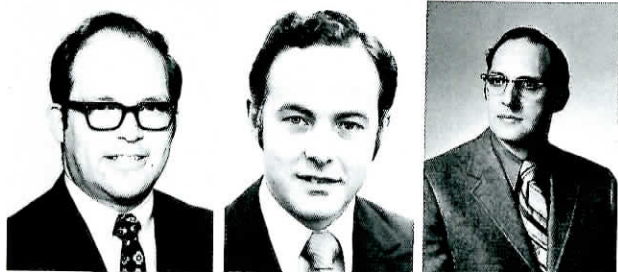

VIRGIL WILKEY, who attended Bryan over three years, continued his education at Emory University for his service as a Methodist minister who has had a unique experience of staying in the same area for all the years of his ministry. Along with his pastoral duties, Mr. Wilkey has been self-employed as a barber, occupying a shop on Main Street for 50 years. He and his wife, Bertha, have seven children plus one daughter who died at sixteen months.

NINA BILLINGSLEY WRIGHT followed one year of college work with marriage and motherhood. She and her husband, Hugh, have three children, Cordell (deceased at the age of 17), Joyce Marshall, and Barbara Nichols. They have been active in community service and for the past 14 years have operated the Sunshine Center, a self-serve laundry plus attended bulk dry cleaning service. They are also active in the Church of Christ. Mrs. Wright includes cake decorating and crocheting among her hobbies.

DANDILINES II

Published last year, this 108-page collection of student essays, poems, stories, literary studies, pen-and-ink sketches, and miscellaneous prose is the second book-length literary publication issued under the auspices of the English Department and edited by Dr. Richard Cornelius '55. Although most of the pieces date from the academic years 1971-73, some earlier compositions have been included. This book sells for $1 per copy or 75¢ per copy in lots of 5 or more (postage paid on all orders). Make out checks to Bryan College and send order to Dr. Richard Cornelius, Box 507, Bryan College, Dayton, TN 37321.

BRYAN GRADS AT G.R.S.B.M.

BREW

TACK

KAUFMAN

Three Bryan graduates who are filling teaching positions at the Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music are WILLIAM BREW '59 and DON TACK '69, who joined the staff last fall, and RUSSELL KAUFMAN '65, who has served there since 1969.

Bill Brew pursued the Th.M. in theology at Dallas Seminary and was pastor including several years at the Fenton Bible Church in Fenton, Mich., prior to his present appointment. He teaches mainly in the Bible department but also helps in English grammar, homiletics, and Greek.

Don Tack began his college level education at GRSBM in 1960 and graduated in 1963. He began pastoral work as a student and continued in the Michigan area until entering Bryan for two years, where he also had pastoral duties. Graduate studies included work on the M.A. at Wheaton College and simultaneous associate pastoral service at the West Chicago Bible Church. At GRSBM he teaches several education courses plus Bible survey and Bible analysis, and is also Christian service advisor. He and Phyllis have two children, Steve, 7 and Lori, 2.

Russell Kaufman went immediately to GRSBM after earning his Th.M. at Dallas seminary. He is registrar in addition to being instructor in Bible and Greek. In 1972 he began doctoral studies at Grace Theological Seminary and also started that year as interim pastor of the Byron Center Bible Church to become regular pastor in 1973. The church is engaged in a $150,000 building program.

HOWARD BERENDSEN x'56 recently became manager of Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge in Oshkosh, Wis., which position interrupted his plan for a campus visit to bring his teenage daughter for a college preview.

DR. ALAN JOHNSON '57, associate professor of Biblical studies at Wheaton College, was honored as Junior Teacher of the Year by the presentation of a plaque and a check for $500. Dr. Johnson was cited for "leadership in the field of Biblical studies, consistent adherence to the highest standards of classroom performance, and genuine concern for student welfare at Wheaton College." He began his service at Wheaton in 1969 after being on the Moody Bible Institute faculty for five years. In addition to the B.A. from Bryan, Dr. Johnson holds the doctor of theology from Dallas Theological Seminary. He is the author of numerous articles, was the Hebrew consultant for The Amplified Old Testament, editor of "God Speaks to an X-Rated Society," contributor to Baker's Dictionary of Christian Ethics and Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia. He is a member of the Evangelical Theological Society and is listed in the 1966 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America, the 1969 edition of Personalities of the West and Mid-West, and 1969 edition of Illinois Lives.

FRANK RUSSELL '57, teacher at Oak Hills Fellowship in Bemidji, Minn., and Gary Fultz, son of Doyle Fultz '59 and a student at Oak Hills, were spring visitors on a volunteer missionary assignment which included ministry at Christian Fellowship Church in Grandview. The twelve team members are pictured below on their visit at Bryan; at least one of these who is graduating at Oak Hills this year plans to enroll at Bryan next fall.

DAVID PATES x'58 is currently employed as engineering proposal writer for Univac in Burnsville, Minn. He completed his B.A. at the University of Minnesota in 1960, the B.S. in English and Education from St. Cloud State College in 1963, and the M.A. from the same school in 1967. He and his wife, Ann, have one daughter, age 2, and are members of the First Covenant Church in Minneapolis, Minn.

GERALD '59 and AMY (WILSON) x'59 SMITH and their daughters, Jill, Susan, and Jana, plan to move in August to Ozark, Ark., where Jerry has accepted the position as Dean of Students as well as teacher at Ozark Bible Institute. They just completed two years of teaching at the Word of Life Bible Institute in New York. This summer they will be at B.M.A. Camp in Cleveland, Ga., from June 10 to August 10 where Jerry is assistant director.

DOUGLAS WHITE '59 received the M.A. in Sociology on May 12 from Marshall University. He is Chief Probation Officer for the County Juvenile Court in Huntington, W. Va. He is Sunday School superintendent of Grace Gospel Church, which has an average attendance of 1,000. His wife LOIS (WILLIAMS) x'61 is a school nurse for the Board of Education and a Sunday School teacher. The Whites have two daughters who are now 14 and 12.

JERRY '50 and RUTH '62 Sisson rejoice in the dedication of the new building for the First Baptist Church of St. Clair, Mich., where Jerry is pastor. LAUREN HOYT '51 was pianist at the dedication service.

DAVID EGNER '61 recently accepted the position of Assistant to the President of the Radio Bible Class, to work with President Richard DeHaan. Dave's responsibilities include editorial direction for the various ministries of the Radio Bible Class including radio, television, and literature. He has completed several years of teaching at the Grand Rapids Baptist Bible College.

GRACE (BLACK) '62 and Norman MELTON with their three children are residing in Omaha, Neb., where Norman, a major in the U.S. Army, was sent to be an advisor to the National Guards. Norman needs four more years of service before retirement.

HENRY UTZ '62 continues his ministry as director of Green Mountain Camp in Seven Fountains, Va. In March he brought his oldest daughter, Lori, for a visit at Bryan, as she plans for a Christian college next fall. Mr. Utz is hoping to expand the summer camp to plan for reaching a thousand young people for Christ in 1974.

KENNETH '63 and LYNETTE (ROWE) '63 UTLEY chat with classmate KENT JUILLARD '62 during their visit to bring a group of French Camp Academy students to Bryan. They have served at this Christian high school in French Camp, Miss., since 1966, with a year out for study at Columbia Bible College. Their efforts have resulted this year in ten French Camp students applying at Bryan for fall admission.

LOIS '63 (TABER) and Dwight BAKER became graduate assistants in English at Bemidji State College and commute 70 miles a day from Leonard, Minn. Their sons are Karl in third grade and Doug in kindergarten. They are enjoying the large harvest of food stored last fall by canning, freezing, or basement storage. They attend a community chapel and assist as janitor, Sunday School teacher, and pianist as needed.

TOM '63 and ARLENE (VON BUSCH) x'65 BEAL are moving with their three children to Ludwigshafen-Rhein, Germany, where Tom will work for the Basf-Wyandotte Chemical Co. until September 1975.

GERALD L. WALTER '65 has received the master of education from Salisbury State College in Salisbury, Maryland. He is living in St. Michaels, Md., and teaching in that area.

JOHN x'65 and PAT (HATHAWAY) '64 HERNDON increased their family on April 4 by adopting John David, who was born on February 27. John is principal of Souder Elementary School in Everman, Texas, a new open-area, team-teaching school. He is working on his doctor's degree in education at North Texas State University. Pat was teaching in second grade until David arrived. The family lives in Burleson, Texas, on an acre-lot in the country.

PHYLLIS BROCK '65 is teaching science in public school. She recently completed her M.A. degree and is beginning her Ph.D. program at Georgia State University.

PAUL '66 and JANET (MILLER) '66 ROSE live in Fort Pierce, Fla., where Paul is pastor of the Indian River Presbyterian Church.

DAVID BARTON '66 has been assistant pastor of the Somonauk Baptist Temple since December 1972.

LEE LLEWELLYN x'66 is working with Tennessee Mountain Mission reaching 3400 children monthly in kindergarten through 8th grade in schools of Roane and Loudon counties in Tennessee. He and his wife go once a month to each of 16 schools to give a Bible lesson and present the Bible memory program of learning 75 Bible verses for a week of free camp or other prizes including a Bible or story book.

STANLEY EDWARDS x'68 recently accepted the position of President and Director of Digital Time-sharing, Inc., a private corporation in Montgomery, Alabama.

DOUGLAS BODLIEN '69 took a new position in February as a member of the technical staff for Computer Sciences Corporation, Falls, Church, Va.

HARVEY KLAMM x'70 began in the fall of 1973 to teach physical education for 7-12th grades at Lynchburg (Va.) Christian Academy, was junior varsity basketball coach and varsity baseball coach. His wife, IRENE (WILSON) x'69 enjoys her care of their daughter, Annette (20 months), and part-time work as R.N. at Virginia Baptist Hospital.

SERGEANT CARVIS D. CHAPPEL '70 was separated from the air force after 43 months of active duty. He spent 24 months in Alaska at Elmendorf AFB, departed Alaska March 1973, and traveled to Continental U.S. via Alaska-Canadian Highway. From May 1973 to April 1974 he served at McConnell AFB, Kansas near Wichita and was released from active duty on April 17, 1974. He plans to reside in Macon, Georgia. He is pictured with Larry Puckett '73, student recruiter.

Airman JOHNNIE L. TRIVETTE '70 has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colorado, after completing Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, where he studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs. At Lowry he is assigned to the Technical Training Center for specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field.

DON HOCKENBERRY x'70 is the houseparent to the older boys at the Christian Home for Children in Fort Lee, N.J., and his wife, Lee Ann, is matron. After two years at Bryan, Don studied at Nyack Missionary College and finished graduate school at Jaffray School of

ALUMNI NEWS BRIEFS

KENNETH '47 and Evelyn MARKEN are residing in Highland Springs, Va., where Ken is serving as U.S. representative of a mission based in Austria and working in Eastern Europe. He is also teaching science in the junior high division of a local Christian school. Their daughter, CHRISTINE x'74, is taking correspondence work at home while assisting in housework, and another daughter, Peggy is to be married in July to a mission member to return to Europe for service.

JEAN PULKIN '49, and her coworker, Eleanor Entz, who retired from their nursing-missionary career in Honduras, have been residing and working in public health nursing in Wichita, Kansas. They visited Bryan on April 19 on a spring tour in the South and are seeking the Lord's direction for further Christian service.

LESLIE '51 and DELLA (HUCK) '50 NAPIER are both teaching in Fairfax County, Va., and Leslie pastors the Upperville Baptist Church. He has been taking courses for endorsement in guidance. The Napiers enjoy having their daughter, BECKY x'74 at home with her husband, DALE TAYLOR x'74 and their daughter, Melissa, who is claimed to be a "beautiful granddaughter."

ALMA (AUSTIN) '51 LAWSON is an elementary teacher at Dallas Independent School District, having earned the M.A. in Education at S.M.U. in Dallas. She and her husband, Lewis, share the superintendency of the Primary Department of Grace Bible Church. They have two children—Jeffrey, 15, and Susan, 13.

FRED DONEHOO '53, a member of the Atlanta Counseling Center staff, will be a guest professor for the Institute of Biblical Studies to be held in Puerto Rico on June 3 through July 5, under the sponsorship of Campus Crusade for Christ International.

William and BEUTON (JOHNSON) x'54 RAPER of Columbus, Ohio, visited with their family in April. Mr. Raper is pastor of Village Baptist Church, and their son Billy is a college prospect.

ANNA RUTH HILLE '55 has been employed by her home church, Calvary Baptist in Covington, Ky., as teacher-principal for the new Calvary Christian School which is scheduled to open in September 1974. She is completing 19 years of public school teaching at the first grade level.

RONALD CHADWICK '56, who is director of Christian Education at Grand Rapids (Mich.) Baptist Seminary, was the speaker on education at Oak Hills 1973 Educator's Bible Conference.

The Raper Family

Missions in 1971. Don and Lee Ann were married in May 1971 and Lee Ann continued her education at Nyack in 1972 and Don became director of youth activities at the Cresskill Free Church. In May 1972, after Lee Ann's graduation, the couple took their present positions. They look forward eventually to ministering to the Sioux Indians in the Dakotas.

NAOMI HIGGINS '70 received the M.S. degree in nursing in September at the Medical College of Georgia. She is currently serving as coordinator of hospital services at the Rhea County Hospital.

ED '72 and JUDY (TRIPLETT) '71 FRITTS are both teaching at Calvary Christian School in Forrest City, Ark., where REV. DAVID KRIBBS '54 is pastor of the supporting church. Judy is third grade teacher and Ed teaches English, spelling, and literature to both seventh and eighth, and math and Bible for eighth. At Christmas time in St. Petersburg, they had fellowship in the home of JOHN x'68 and ANN (TRIPLETT) '68 REYNOLDS along with other Bryanites, JIM '69 and WYNN ANN (GARRETT) '70 BAUMAN, NANCY SNYDER '69, LOIS CLAPP '68, ALLEN '68 and CAROLE (OTTESON) x'69 MAWHINNEY, and BILL JOYNER '67.

MATTHEW PARKER x'71 was recently named as minority student advisor at Wheaton College. He has had several years experience with Campus Crusade and Venture for Victory.

JACK '71 and ESTHER (OCHERS) x'72 LILLEY are residing in Oak Park, Ill., where Jack is assistant pastor at Calvary Memorial Church, working mainly with young people and visitation. He is also taking some Greek courses at Wheaton Graduate School.

JOEL PEARMAN '71 graduated from the University of Tennessee law school, placing sixth in his class. He took the bar exam in February and was notified of his admission to the bar on April 29. He plans to practice law in Harriman, Tenn., as an associate with his father, Jess Pearman. Joel is married to ANN (FULMER) '72, who is a special education teacher at Walnut Hill Elementary School. They are both active in the Trinity Baptist Church.

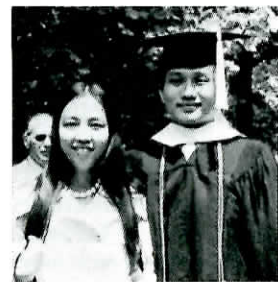

TIM BOEDDEKER x'72 completed four years of military service in February. He and his wife, Margaret, spent the last year in Gulfport, Miss., where Tim was stationed on the U.S. Coast Guard Cutter ACUSHNET (WAGO 167), a 214-foot long ship used primarily with NASA and the Department of Commerce in mooring and maintaining of weather buoys. He earned the rank of Storekeeper First Class (E-6) in 1973. Margaret worked for the Memorial Hospital of Gulfport in the Coronary Intensive Care Unit. They are now living in their home area of St. Louis.

LARRY HARPER '72 has completed work for the master of arts in Old Testament at the Trinity Evangelical Divinity School with the degree being conferred on June 14. He plans to continue working toward the M.Div. next fall and may be teaching elementary Hebrew at the Divinity school. He and BONNIE (SHUMAKER) '72 and little Matthew live in a small cottage in the country with a Wauconda, Ill., address.

CAROL (WILSON) '72 and Paul MOORE are residing in Miami, where Carol is in her second year teaching third grade at Westminster Christian School and Paul is a May graduate in mass communication at Miami Christian University with future plans open to Christian work.

BRUCE PAULEY '73 arrived in Payson, Utah, on March 20 and found a four-room house for his home as he begins his full-time service of witnessing in Mormon territory.

CHARLOTTE CLARK '73, DAVID '73 and BEVERLY (MILLER) '73 KINSEY are active in the Bethany Evangelical Free Church of Denver, Colo., where HIGHLAND (Sonny) '69 and PATTY (COLLINS) '69 GOODMAN serve in youth ministry. Charlotte is on Campus Life staff in high school ministry of Youth for Christ. David Kinsey is attending Conservative Baptist Seminary.

PETER '74 (first semester graduate) and SARIANNE '73 TRINH moved in January to Tallahassee, Fla., where Peter is teaching math at the North Florida Christian School. They are pictured here at the May graduation when Peter received his B.A. degree.

DENNIS R. NAGY x'74 is completing his junior year at the University of Missouri in St. Louis, majoring in chemistry with a secondary education certification and finds his Christian outlet as a staff member of Bible Memory Association International.

LOIS MUMMERT x'74 received the A.A. degree in nursing in May 1973. She has been a registered nurse on the staff at Washington County Hospital for a year and at the Grace Brethren Church, both of Hagerstown, Maryland. Future plans include marriage in June.

MISSIONARY NEWS

Clare and GRACE (THEOBALD) x'46 MCGILL are completing the preparation of a diglot Tayal printing project with Chinese characters to be left for offset printing in Taiwan before they take a furlough beginning in the summer. They hope to have a Christmas reunion with STERLING THEOBALD x'50 and family and PAUL THEOBALD x'43 and family, who are both living in Camdenton, Mo. Their father is 91 this spring. Young Tim McGill is taking grade 13 in Canada and hopes to enroll at the University of Waterloo to study math-computer science.

DALMAIN '50 and Audrey CONGDON came in April to Chicago on furlough from South Africa. They have meetings planned through July and then in August plan to move to Furlough Cottages in Ventnor, N. J. Their daughter, Debbie, plans to go to King's College to be near her parents.

PAUL x'55 and Jane ARDELEAN expect to leave about August 1 to assume teaching duties in Brasilia, Brazil, under Wycliffe Bible Translators. They were there in 1969-71 as part of their two-year short-term service with Wycliffe until they returned in 1971 to their home in Wayne, Mich., where Paul has been teaching. Their daughter Janet will be starting high school, Martha will enter 8th grade, and Greg will begin 5th. Jane will be teaching in addition to home duties.

Roger and NAOMI (HILDEBRAND) '55 WALKWITZ are encouraged to see the growth of BIBAK Bible Fellowship in Baguio City, Philippines. They are supporting their own work plus their first full-time student missionary. Roger was elected to Field Council for a two-year term which means more trips to Manila where their sons are students at Faith Academy. Ray and Randy finished 10th and 9th grades. Ron celebrated his 12th birthday on April 10, the same day his Grandpa Walkwitz was ushered into heaven as a result of acute leukemia.

SANDY CUE '55 began furlough on May 1 from Brazil in time to join her family in Texas for her brother's high school graduation and her sister's wedding. Among the Waicas in Brazil, primer work continues

WEDDINGS

ROBERT E. CAMPBELL '69 to Dorinda Joy Rost on May 25 in Belton, Texas. Bob is serving with the military in Fort Hood, Texas.

ELAINE MIRIAM SHELDON '71 and Rev. Glen S. Milner on Saturday, May 25, in the Immanuel Baptist Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

LINDA JOY HORTON '73 and William F. Buschner on Sunday, April 7, in Emanuel Methodist Church, Bradenton, Fla.

RON GORDON x'75 and LIZABETH LOOSE '73 on December 22 in Graysville, Ala.

WAYNE ANGUS McLEOD '73 and Sarah Elizabeth Yeaple on Friday, May 17, at Immanuel Baptist Church, Wilmington, Del.

SUSAN ALISON SIMPSON '73 and GREGORY LEE JEWELL '74 on Saturday, June 8, in Duncan Park Baptist Church, Chattanooga, Tenn.

CAROL DEE ANN AUSTIN '74 and WILLIAM S. (BIFF) QUARLES x'75 on Saturday, May 11, in the Courtyard of Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

JONATHAN DAVID EISENBACK '74 and MARI-LYN LEE HAWKINS x'75, on Monday, May 6 in the Bryan College Chapel.

STEPHEN GEORGE GRIFFITH '74 and ELAINE DAVIES x'75, on Sunday, May 12 in the Providence Church of Christ, Charlotte, N. C.

JOHN JOSEPH MARSHALL '74 and CYNTHIA ANN MEEHAN x'75 on May 7, at the Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

DAVID WRIGHT '74 and Debra Troyer on Saturday, May 11, in Howardsville Gospel Church, Marcellus, Mich.

JAMES PATRICK WHITAKER x'75 and Margaret Diane Woolard on August 17, in Richmond, Va., at the Immanuel Baptist Church.

GLORIA CHADDOCK x'76 and John Henry Bult-house on Saturday, May 18, in the Village Green Baptist Church of Glen Ellyn, Ill.

KATHLEEN PAMELA HOIN x'76 and John Mason Myrick on June 1, in the First Baptist Church of Pine Hills, Orlando, Fla.

JANICE MARIE LEONARD x'76 and Robert Earl Johnson on March 9 at Sheets Memorial Baptist Church in Lexington, N.C.

ANNA LOIS McCARRELL x'76, daughter of ROBERT '55, and Larry Wallace Varnell on Friday, May 17 in the Calvary Baptist Church, Cleveland, Tenn.

in the Waica Station dialect and at the station a new air strip, downriver close to the village, is now under construction by the Indians themselves.

DAVID '57 AND KAY (TEMPLE) '55 HENRY report completed translation of four chapters of Galatians in the Koyukon Indian language. Dave was involved in bilingual education in seven village schools, training thirty Indians in reading, writing and teaching methods. Last winter five Indians helped compose fourteen different books in Indian. Dave is chairman of the executive committee for their branch of Wycliffe and also manager of the Alaska base.

LOIS (FRIESWYK) GOULD '56 is planning to leave Ivory Coast on July 19 with her children, Greg and Lori, to arrive in Wheaton, Ill., for meetings. They plan to live in Southfield, Mich., after a visit to Florida with the Goulds.

Wendell and JOYCE (HUGHES) '58 KARSEN returned to the Orient in April but to a new location in Hong Kong. Their assignment is to work with a newly formed Committee on Ministries to Schools that has the responsibility of ministering to the spiritual needs of over 57,000 students and faculty in a school system administered by the church, including 39 elementary and 15 secondary schools. They will use their four years of language training from Taiwan and also learn the Cantonese dialect.

The Crane Family

DON '66 and BEATRICE (PENDLETON) '66 CRANE report from Portugal that the Greater Europe Mission has received from a Dutch Foundation a building and grounds formerly used as an orphanage. A Bible institute is being planned to start through an extension program which arranges for teachers to go to areas where students live and continue their work and ministry. The Crane family moved to a third floor apartment to be near the new headquarters building in Flamenga, Loures, Portugal.

FORMER STAFF NEWS

Mrs. Erma Hill left her home in California last fall to live with her son in Pennsylvania, but necessity for warmer climate and her daughter's location at Zellwood, Fla., attracted her to central Florida, where she found a home in a retirement center in Minneola, with an address of P. O. Box 672, Minneola, FL 32755.

Mrs. Julia Yancey Dowdy enjoys her retirement from school teaching in her home on a lake at Weirsdale, Fla. She continues to play for her local church and also entertains herself and guests with her organ at home.

Mrs. Charles (Alleyne) Currens, who resides in Decatur, Ga., is still active at 85 but has poor vision. A friend is reading the Old Testament to her and she uses the Library for the Blind.

BIRTHS

To Vernon and MABEL (McLEOD) x'60 BARGER, a son, Andrew Vernon, on October 6, in Waunakee, Wis. Older children are Victor, 4, and Amy 2½.

To Rich and CARLENE (WIGGINS) x'62 RUSK, a second son, Bret Allen, on May 24, at Hammond, Ind.

To LESLIE '64 and BETH (BILLEY) '65 COX, a son, George Jeremy, on April 5, in Cleveland, Tenn.

To DAVID '66 and Ellie BARTON, a son, Jonathan David, on Nov. 11, 1973, in Somonauk, Ill.

To Richard and CAROLYN (HAMBY) x'68 LIVINGOOD, a son, Brent Herral, on April 19, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

To BILL x'69 and SUE (MOSER) x'71 FREEMAN, a daughter, Susan Andrea, on March 8 in Taylors, S.C.

To DOUGLAS '69 and BONITA (McMILLAN) x'71 BODLIEN, a daughter, Cassandra Lynn, born March 8 in Annandale, Va.

To GEORGE '73 and Elaine MILLER, a son, Jason Matthew, on April 9, 1974, in Spencer, N.Y.

To HAROLD '73 and SHIRLEY (ALVIS) '73 ME-BERG, a daughter, Katrina Michelle, on January 9 in Dayton, Tenn.

To DANN '73 and LINDA (HOWARD) '73 SPEICH-INGER, a son, Nathan Alan, on May 9, in Teec Nos Pos, Ariz.